

STUDENT NEWSLETTER: SEPT 22 2017

Hi all,

Short and sweet this week, just a few reminders/explanations about the rest of induction. Thankful all for the past few days, it has been a really positive time.

Meeting updates

I will try to keep you informed about meetings I attend on your behalf. This week has been management committee and cheshunt governors. The big takeaway for me has been how much hard work is out in by so many people for us, and that we are listened to more than we may notice. If you want to know more about these meetings let me know.
