

Draw Breath and Reflect Upon: God's Amazing Creation through Art & Photography

In the busyness of life we all need the opportunity to step back and spend time in the company of God reflecting upon life, our faith and what God is calling us to. These days have a different emphasis allowing a variety of approaches that make the most of Westminster's stunning buildings and facilities. In August we will be focusing on God's Amazing Creation through Art & Photography.

Linda and Neil will help us to draw inspiration from the beauty of Cambridge as we take a walk down the backs in the morning with a camera or sketchpad at the ready. This will set the scene to help us think about how we might use our art and photographs to enrich our spiritual life and for use in worship, prayer and reflective practice.

LYNDA RAYNER

Based in South Manchester, Linda works as the coordinator for fresh expressions for the United Reformed Church (URC). She has been a member of the URC since 1973 - just one year after it came into being.

Linda's interest in fresh expressions of church started in the 1990s, when she was part of the team who set up the Bramhall URC 9.30 service - an all-age café church in the church hall, which was radical back then.

Linda is passionate about local mission and sharing the Good News with people who know nothing about Jesus

NEIL THOROGOOD

Neil's responsibilities include the good running of the college and the building up of its community and the campus with its partners. With other heads of Cambridge Theological Federation institutions he shares oversight of the Federation's life and work. He works alongside others across the URC in educational and learning provision. His teaching focuses around pastoral theology, the practice of ministry and theology and the visual arts.
