

Westminster College Data protection statement and privacy notice: Members of College

This statement explains how Westminster College handles and uses personal data we collect about members of college, other than Students who are covered by a separate privacy notice. Where in this statement we refer to 'we' or 'our' or 'us' we are referring to Westminster College, Cambridge and where we refer to 'you' or 'your' we are referring to members of college. We are registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) with registration number Z6779220.

We are committed to protecting your personal information and to being transparent about what information we hold. Westminster College understands its obligations to you to help you understand how and why we process your personal data. This notice tells you about these uses and should be read in conjunction with the Westminster College data protection policy.

Our data protection policy and procedures are governed by the Data Protection Act (DPA) 1998 and, from 25th May 2018, the EU General Data Protection Regulation. The law in this area is changing rapidly and we anticipate this statement may be revised in line with guidance from the Information Commissioner's office.

Why we hold your personal data

Holding your personal data enables us to record your benefits and obligation as a member of college and, where appropriate, publicise your membership of College online, in print and on social media.

We will also process your personal information in other circumstances, provided you have given your consent for us to do so.

Lawful basis for processing personal data

The lawful basis for processing the personal data of members of the college as described in this document is consent.

There may be statutory requirements for you to provide personal data, without which we will be unable to facilitate visa applications for you.

Westminster College may also store some of your personal data in accordance with other privacy notices (eg if you are resident at Westminster College or have given consent for marketing).

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us at the address given below. We will always respect a request by you to stop processing your personal data, and in addition your statutory rights are set out below.

Sharing your data with others

Within Westminster College, personal data, including sensitive personal data, may be shared between members of staff, including Trustees, who legitimately need the information to carry out their normal duties to support your time with us. We endeavour to ensure that sensitive personal data is only shared with colleagues with your explicit consent. However, circumstances may arise where this data is shared with colleagues without gaining your consent. This will only occur if it is necessary to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another person; or for certain other reasons where it is not possible or appropriate to gain your consent such as disclosures to the police for prevention or detection of crime, or to meet statutory obligations relating to equality monitoring.

Westminster College may disclose certain personal data to third parties. These external organisations, and the purpose for sharing the information, are set out below:

- With your permission we may share information about you for publicity and marketing purposes online, in print and on social media.

Otherwise, Westminster College does not share data with any third party, except as allowed for in other privacy notices or required by law. We do not sell your personal data to third parties under any circumstances, or permit third parties to sell on the data we have shared with them.

Transfer of personal data to other countries

Where data is shared within the UK, or the European Union (EU), the third party will be required to comply with and safeguard the data under the terms of the DPA and appropriate EU regulations.

Your personal information will only be transferred to countries, outside of the EU, whose data protection laws have been assessed as adequate by the European Commission, or where adequate safeguards, such as the EU-US Privacy Shield, are in place.

How long data is kept

We will retain your data as part of our financial records for seven years in line with tax legislation. Data will be securely destroyed when no longer required.

Where you exercise your right to erasure, we will continue to maintain a core set of personal data (name, dates of studying at Westminster College and date of birth) to ensure we do not contact you inadvertently in future, and to maintain your record for archive purposes. We may also need to retain some financial records about you for statutory purposes (e.g. accounting matters).

Your rights

You have the following rights

To be informed	This Privacy Notice provides the information you are entitled to receive
Access	Please contact us if you would like confirmation that your data is being processed and access to your personal data.  There is no charge for us providing you with this data and it will usually be provided within a month of the request (unless the request is unfounded or excessive).
Rectification	Please inform us of any data which you would like rectified and we will usually respond within a month of the request.  We will pass on the changes to any third parties who need to change their records and let you know this has been done.
Erasure	You may exercise your right to have your personal data erased in a number of circumstances (e.g. if the data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose for which it was created or you withdraw your consent). Where possible we will comply with all such requests, though some details are part of the College's permanent records (e.g. examination results, college photographs) which can not reasonably be deleted.
Restrict processing	You can tell us that we can keep your data but must stop processing it, including preventing future mailings and communications.  If possible we will inform any third parties to whom your data has been disclosed of your requirement.
Data portability	Your data is across manual records and a bespoke Access database. We will do our best to provide information in a portable format but it is unlikely that we can create systems to do so.
To object	If we can, we will stop processing your data if you object to processing based on legitimate interests or the performance of a task in the public interest / exercise of official authority (including profiling).  We will stop processing your data for direct marketing if you tell us to.  We will stop processing your data if you object to processing for purposes of research and statistics.
Not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling	We do not use any automated decision-making.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>.
