

Draw Breath and Reflect Up- on: Aspects Of The Cross

In the busyness of life we all need the opportunity to step back and spend time in the company of God reflecting upon life, our faith and what God is calling us to. These days have a different emphasis allowing a variety of approaches that make the most of Westminster's stunning buildings and facilities. In March we will be focusing on Aspects of the cross. If you think you would like to take longer than a day with us why not consider our "In the Company of" initiative that allows for some guided reflection.

Leading the day and offering different pathways will be:

PETER BALL

Conversations around the cross

Previously had pastorates at Sawston Free Church, Little Abingdon and St John's URC Ipswich and from 2008 Mission & training Officer for Eastern Synod.

SAM WHITE

Through Art and Image

Ordained as a Minister of Word and Sacraments in the United Reformed Church in 2006 and has experience in pastoral ministry and hospital chaplaincy.

MARY IRISH

Reflective Journey

Ordained for over 20 years and served in a variety of ministries including pastoral charge of a Church, hospital chaplaincy and management of a charity for the homeless.
