1 Kings 19: 11-13...

11 He said, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.' Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; 12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. 13 When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, ‘What are you doing here, Elijah?’

Student Council

Lent Art

Please do keep adding art to the Lent Art Exhibition in the Chapel. It’s looking great so far! We hope that this might continue for each season of the liturgical calendar.

A message from Tessa
I write this email to say two things. 1. Mark and I have received calls to two pastorates in Southampton and have accepted the calls.

The other thing is that I was asked to speak at the upcoming Beyond the Dream conference in Birmingham. I was asked because one of the articles I wrote for Black Theology: An International Journal (available at Westminster Library) is entitled Blackness, Black Power and God Talk: A Reflection. In it reflected on the Black Power riots in Trinidad and Tobago in 1970, questioning whether or not emancipation can be achieved through non-violence.

The conference seeks to ask: "Fifty years after the death of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, how do we regard his ministry, activism and its relevance for today? Bright Black is convening a one day conference to explore and provide a more holistic and comprehensive appraisal of MLK's work, assess whether his non-violent struggle actually bore fruit and, whether it is a relevant mode of social action in today's context of increasing racism. Please Click Here for details.

The conference is being organised ecumenically (Baptist, Methodist, Church of England and the United Reformed Church) by Rev. Kumar Rajagopalan, Professor Anthony Reddie, Rev. David Shosanya & Rev. Dr. Michael Jagessar, and together they warmly invite all to this conference.”

Please ask Alex or Tessa for more information.
