

Study With Us: Lay Preachers and Worship Leaders

We welcome those who are currently serving as Lay Preachers and Worship Leaders in the URC to deepen their faith by engaging in deeper theological study, building on their existing training.

Westminster runs short courses on e.g. homiletics, rites of passage, etc. for those preparing for a range of ministries. For more information, please contact us.

If you would like to audit a module or two from the suite of Durham Common Awards, there are a number that would further equip you for your ministry, including:

Biblical Studies

- Introduction to the New Testament
- Introduction to the Old Testament
- Bible in Context

Theology, Ministry and Mission

Introduction to Christian Worship

- Introduction to Pastoral Care
- Exploring Leadership and Theology for Ministry and Mission
- Mission and Apologetics in Contemporary Culture
- Adult Education for the Learning Church
- Denominational History & Principles
- Introduction to Christian Doctrine
- Brief Introduction to Church History
- Christian Faith and Ethical Living

These modules are all taught intensively over 3-5 days. Some are based at Westminster, taught by Westminster staff, and others at Ridley Hall, taught by staff of the Cambridge Theological Federation.

If you would like to consider taking an accredited course, please see the relevant course pages for details and please contact the Director of Studies for more information.
