Are you an educator who is passionate about ministry and pastoral care?

Westminster College is seeking to appoint a Director of Pastoral Studies (0.5 fte). We are searching for someone who will relish the opportunity to share in networks of teachers and trainers in the Cambridge Theological Federation and is excited at the prospect of sharing in the URC's life in tune with its ethos of broad theological diversity, alongside openness to ministry and leadership by people from all backgrounds. The successful applicant will help people to reflect on pastoral practice, on training for practical aspects of ministry and discipleship, while engaging fully in the Church's mission in ways appropriate to our contemporary context.

For Job Description and Person Specification, as well as application form, see the website (address below), or contact the Tutorial Office.

Applications are invited from candidates who are members of the United Reformed Church or members of those Churches which belong to one or more of the World Communion of Reformed Churches, the Disciples Ecumenical Consultative Council, the Council for World Mission, Action of Churches Together in Scotland, Churches Together in England, Cytun, the Free Churches Group, or Churches Together in Britain and Ireland. If you are unsure how these categories work in your case, please speak to us.

We would particularly welcome applications from candidates from Black and ethnic minority backgrounds who are currently under-represented in our team.

Applicants can also apply for the part-time Director of Church Research Development if they wish.

If you are interested in working for us and can meet the above requirements, please contact us/see our website for an application form (noting that we do not accept CVs):
